Kennedy Aide Moves to NBC

NEW YORK, July 30 (AP)—Frank Mankiewicz, former press secretary for the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, has been named an NBC news correspondent, it was announced today. The first assignment for Mankiewicz, 44, will be helping to cover the political conventions.

Mankiewicz, formerly a newspaper editor and a practicing attorney, joined Kennedy in 1966 after serving as regional director for the Peace Corps in Latin America.
